ABOUT SHUMO

SHUMO is your enforcer – he follows where you, the community, decides to go. This is a crypto-take on a Choose Your Own Adventure book, putting you at the beating heart of all decisions that affect this project. Holders can vote for SHUMO to squash some supply, or how to use the marketing funds. This could include investing in other projects or NFTs and funnelling profits to holders. The roadmap will be filled with exciting adventures for SHUMO to complete, all chosen by you! SHUMO is unstoppable. He will become Grand Champion of the Ethereum blockchain.

PROJECT & ECOSYSTEM

One of the main issues many cryptocurrency projects face is the lack of long term volume; which invariably slows down further development and any subsequent reinvestment into enhancing the project.

You vote for SHUM0 to squash some supply, or how you, the holders want the marketing funds. This can include investing in other projects, bluechip and rising NFTs and funnelling profits back to holders.
